Green Wave in the Western Balkans - Challenges and Perspectives

With the rise of new green parties and following green electoral successes in the Western Balkans, the Greens/EFA group in the European Parliament are inviting key green actors from the region for a round table discussion on the green wave and our future challenges.

The Greens/EFA conference, organised by MEPs Gwendoline Delbos-Corfield, Viola von Cramon-Taubadel, Thomas Waitz and Tineke Strik, will take place in room JAN 6Q2 in the European Parliament, and online. The conference will consist of two panel discussions, and will be followed by a cocktail reception. While the working language will be English, interpretation will also be provided in French and Croatian. The conference will also be live streamed via Interactio.
